

Kid cents (London) Inc. & Boutique Top Floor

Consignment Agreement

All merchandise is accepted on a consignment basis. As the consignor, you receive 40% of the selling price the month after the goods are sold.

Payments may be collected from the 15th day of each month. It is the responsibility of the consignor to check your account each month. Monies not collected within 6 months of the last items sale will become the property of Kid Cents (London) Inc.

Clothing is accepted into the store for approximately two (2) months. Items removed from the store prior to sixty days are subject to a $2.00 per item administration fee. All prices are determined by Kid Cents. All articles will be subject to periodic reductions (usually after 30 days) and seasonal clearance sales.

Kid Cents supports several local charities. Your unsold clothing will be donated to the most appropriate location (a list of charities is available by request). You may request expensive items be returned to you for a $5.00 each processing fee. No other exceptions apply. After 90 days, any unclaimed item(s) becomes the property of Kid Cents to be disposed of at our discretion.

Kid Cents reserves the right to refuse any item based on price, quality, cleanliness or suitability for sale. Any out of season clothing may be donated to a charity of our choice. We prefer items purchased within the last two years. We do not accept items with stains, missing or broken buttons, snaps or zippers, faded, outdated or pilled. If these items are received they will be donated without notice. Large orders that are dropped off and require excessive sorting, hanging, storing and donating will be subject to a $20.00 processing fee taken off your payout. Please sort your items prior to your appointment and hang clothing that is liable to wrinkle. The more presentable your items arrive at the store the sooner they will be on the selling floor.

We are sorry but we cannot accept liability for theft, loss or damage to items left with us, however caused. We do not reimburse for damaged, lost or stolen property.
